NB 3 The necessity for promoting Mr Paul ~~Ata~~ to the higher grade and posting him to the Agricultural Dept and bringing in another head draughtsman in his place as being the most suitable to work under Mr G. H. Krumbiegel is not understood. If Mr Paul was the senior most Asstt Draughtsman to whom a promotion was due due to a vacancy in the higher grade, he might have been retained there with sanction of Govt. The Chief Engineer may perhaps be required to explain this point and state whether Mr Naidu was as recently promoted or is senior to Mr Paul

8 Mr Paul could have been promoted to the next higher grade, obtaining sanction to revise the pay of his post correspondingly instead of ~~the existing arrangement~~ posting Mr Krishnamurthi Naidu, a draftsman on higher grade, against a post carrying a lower rate of pay. This point has not been clarified by the Chief Engineer. Mr Krishnamurthy Naidu has not drawn his salary for the past three or four months on account of the above arrangement—

Re:- The post of Assistant Draftsman working under Mr G H Krumbiegel, Consulting Architect and Town Planner

6/5/43

In continuation of this office letter No 20845-6 dated 4-5-43, requesting to communicate sanction of Government to the continuance of the services of Mr Z D Paul, Assistant Draftsman working under Mr G H Krumbiegel, Consulting Architect and Town Planner during the year 1943-44 for the reasons therein given, I have the honour to state that Mr Z D Paul, Assistant Draftsman in the grade of Rs 30-3-50 was promoted as Head Draftsman and posted to the Office of the Government Architect

2 Mr M Krishna Murthy Naidu, Draftsman in the grade of Rs 55-5-80 was posted from the Central Office to work under Mr Krumbiegel as he (the Draftsman) had a special training under Mr Krumbiegel himself

3 As a Draftsman in the grade of Rs 55-5-80 was posted to work under Mr Krumbiegel in place of an Assistant Draftsman in the grade of Rs 35-3-50, the Comptroller has taken objection to admit in audit the pay bill of Mr M. Krishna Murthy Naidu, Draftsman, for the month of October 1943

4 As the Draftsman Mr M Krishna Murthy Naidu had a special training for the work under Town Planning Scheme and as he is the most suitable hand to work under Mr Krumbiegel, it is not desirable to revert him to the Public Works Department and post an Assistant Draftsman in his place

5 In the above circumstances, I request you kindly to communicate sanction of Government to continue the services of Mr M. Krishna Murthy Naidu, Draftsman, on his present pay, under Mr G H Krumbiegel, with effect from 3-10-1943

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
